To Our Valued Customers,

Frederick County Division of Parks and Recreation would like to invite you to our Annual Field Scheduling Meeting on December 3, 2019 at 6:00pm in the Bourne Building located at 355 Montevue Lane, Frederick, MD 21702

It is mandatory that someone from every organization attend in order to receive a better understanding of the changes that will be in place effective immediately, and to understand the overview for 2020.

FCPR will be sharing information relating to updates and improvements in several different areas:

★ New Field Scheduling Process for both Natural Grass Fields and Synthetic Fields

Please visit the link for our updated www.recreater.com pages to view the information regarding the updated field scheduling process that will be covered in this meeting, particularly the Application and the Policy and Guidelines. <https://www.recreater.com/726/Natural-Grass-Fields>

★ Information about our New Parks and New Fields

Utica District Park phase 2 and Othello Regional Parks will be opening soon!

★ Information introducing our new Utica Tournament Options

A new venue providing new tournament services.

★ New Field Maintenance Training Process

New options that allow better availability on training.

★ New Staffing to Improve customer service

Meet the new staff and hear about the plans for future staffing.

★ Recurring Tournament Scheduling for 2020

Softball tournaments will still be scheduled this night with conditions. You will find applications at the links above. If you cannot attend this meeting and plan to send a proxy representative for your organization, please notify us by email prior to the day.

Please add this meeting to your calendar and make sure to attend.

We look forward to seeing you there!
