

Rose Hill needs your help!

We are looking for specific items for our museum and activities.
If you can donate any of the following items please contact us or stop by!

- Children's dress up clothes (pre-1950's styles)
- Kitchen utensils for historic kitchen
- Wooden handled kitchen knives
- General historic kitchen items (bowls, cutting boards, water pitchers, platters, etc)
- Plain white stoneware dishes
- 18th and 19th century appropriate furniture (dining room, parlor)
- Framed artwork for the 18th and 19th century
- baby food jars
- office supplies (colored paper, school glue, glue sticks, markers, crayons, colored pencils, permanent markers, etc.)
- Embroidery supplies (needles, threads, canvas, hoops)
- Pringles cans
- Misc. Craft supplies (ribbon, beads, stickers, pom poms, googly eyes, buttons, felt, etc.)
- 18th and 19th century reproduction clothing.
- Paper towel and toilet paper rolls
- Pot holder looms and loops
- Modern Sewing Machine
- Modern iron and ironing board
- hand held clothing steamer
- Gardening supplies (gloves, hand shovels, rakes)
- Scrapbooking paper and supplies
- Plastic storage bins
- Acid free archival boxes and acid free tissue paper
- Long handled wooden peel
- Natural fiber fabrics (both yardage and larger scraps)
- Period appropriate sheer curtains and valences
- Fake display foods
- Flour sack or huck towels
- Can opener
- Modern large picture frames and poster frames (must be easy to change out pictures)
- Clothing display forms for men, women and children
- Farm themed toys
- Children's and young adult books that take place between 1700 and 1950.
- Colonial era appropriate doll house furniture and dolls.

301-600-1648 • parksandrecreation@frederickcountymd.gov

Rose Hill Manor Park and Museums

1611 North Market Street, Frederick, MD 21701